ABOUT ME

I'm a software developer and a passionate problem-solver with a deep-rooted curiosity for everything tech. With hands-on experience across multiple domains, I specialize in crafting smart, scalable solutions to real-world challenges—whether it's building robust applications, optimizing workflows, or bringing complex ideas to life through code.

Driven by innovation and a love for learning, I stay on the pulse of emerging technologies to ensure I deliver solutions that are not only efficient but future-ready. From startups to enterprises, I've collaborated across a range of industries, helping teams unlock value through technology.

I believe in the power of code to transform ideas into impact, and I thrive on turning technical problems into opportunities for growth and creativity.

WORK EXPERIENCE

POSHFIL

Executive level | Web designer and developer
Ekiti, Nigeria
2025-05-01 | Currently working here

Served as the sole Web Developer and Designer responsible for creating a modern, responsive, and user-friendly website for a forward-thinking innovation and manufacturing company. The project aimed to showcase the brand's capabilities, streamline communication with clients, and reflect its commitment to cutting-edge technology and industrial solutions.

Key Responsibilities

- Designed and developed a fully responsive, SEO-optimized website from concept to launch.
- Collaborated with stakeholders to translate business goals into intuitive digital experiences.

Created wireframes, UI/UX designs, and implemented front-end development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript.

- Ensured cross-browser compatibility, mobile responsiveness, and high-performance loading speeds.
- Embedded contact forms, product/service listings, and media galleries to support business operations.
- Implemented security best practices and analytics tracking for user insights.

Impact

- Improved online presence and brand credibility within the industrial and tech sectors.
- Enhanced user engagement through a clean, modern interface and optimized navigation.
- Delivered the project on time, aligned with client expectations and industry standards.
